

Overview

Kenya's prime geographical location, connecting Burundi, Rwanda, South Sudan, Tanzania and Uganda, and its steady economic growth have positioned it as one of Africa's frontier economies.

In October 2018, global law firm Dentons and Hamilton Harrison & Mathews combined to form Dentons Hamilton Harrison & Mathews with offices in Kenya. As one of the country's oldest law firms with a tradition of excellence dating back to 1902, clients trust our reputation as an experienced, responsive and highly-skilled practice with the capabilities to deliver innovative legal solutions backed by global expertise spanning more than 70 countries worldwide.

With a team of 60+ lawyers based in Nairobi and Mombasa, we offer our clients services across all the commercial aspects of doing business in Kenya including:

- Banking and Finance
- Business Set-up
- Capital Markets
- Competition/Anti-Trust and Consumer Protection
- Corporate
- Dispute Resolution including Arbitration
- Employment and Immigration
- Energy and Infrastructure
- Estate Planning
- PPPs and Privatisation
- Insurance
- Intellectual Property
- Insolvency and Restructuring
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Oil, Gas and Mining
- Private Equity
- Real Estate, Planning and Environmental Law
- Regulatory and Compliance
- Tax

- Telecommunication, Media and Technology

For assistance in making a seamless entry into East and Central Africa's most advanced economy, call on our team in Kenya.

Your Key Contacts

Africa

Adil Khawaja

Managing Partner, Nairobi

D +254 20 3258292

M +254 070 3068292

adil.khawaja@dentons.com

Richard Omwela

Senior Partner, Nairobi

D +254 20 3258252

M +254 703 068252

richard.omwela@dentons.com