

Overview

Auckland (Tāmaki Makaurau) is New Zealand's largest city with a population of over 1.2 million, which is approaching one third of the country's entire population. Auckland is the major financial and economic hub of the country, with the city contributing over a third of New Zealand's GDP.

Dentons Kensington Swan has a long history in Auckland and is recognised as being a leading full service commercial law firm and as leaders in the financial markets, infrastructure and government sectors.

Key service areas include:

- Banking and Finance
- Corporate
- Employment and Labour
- Occupational Safety and Health
- Energy
- Environment and Natural Resources
- Immigration
- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Privacy and Cybersecurity
- Technology
- Overseas Investment
- Public Policy and Regulation
- Real Estate
- Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy
- Trusts, Estates and Wealth Preservation
- Asia Business
- Construction
- Financial Markets

- Government
- Infrastructure
- Japan Business
- Life Sciences and Health Care
- Māori Business
- Transportation
- Wine and Liquor

Your Key Contacts

Australasia

Matthew Ockleston

Partner, Auckland

D +64 9 915 3350

M +64 21 582 429

matthew.ockleston@dentons.com

Dr. Andrew Baker

Patent Attorney and Director,
Auckland

D +64 9 302 2682

M +64 21 648 953

andrew.baker@dentons.com

Doug Stipanicev

Australia Chair and

Australasia Region CEO,

Perth

D +61 8 9323 0982

doug.stipanicev@dentons.com