China Desk in Calgary

Whether your business needs advice on mining, oil, gas and oil sands, liquefied natural gas, forestry, technology, manufacturing, real estate, financial services, capital markets or infrastructure development, Dentons' China desk in Calgary has the legal expertise you need. Let us help with your Canadian investments, Canada's foreign investment laws and other regulations, and tax advice regarding your deal structure. With six offices in Canada's major business centers and deep networks within the business community, our China team can address your legal needs across Canada.

For decades, we've acted for clients in China and Hong Kong seeking business opportunities in Canada. We advise Chinese clients on Toronto Stock Exchange and TSX Venture Exchange listings and on matters related to corporate/commercial financings, mergers and acquisitions, trade and energy (including oil, gas and renewable energy).

Leverage our experience in the energy industry, including oil sands, liquefied natural gas, pipelines, energy services and infrastructure. From exploration and development to production and reclamation, we can advise you on every aspect of your mining project. If you're a mining company, tap into our vast knowledge of capital markets and financing
