

Overview

Dentons' Guangzhou office was established in 2001. The office includes a team of more than 120 talented lawyers who graduated from outstanding universities both at home and abroad, and has already become one of the leading offices in southern China. The team includes lawyers with significant experience in economics, finance, business administration, accounting and tax.

The main practice areas of the Guangzhou office include:

- Securities and capital markets
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Outbound investment and foreign investment
- Bankruptcy and restructuring
- Banking and finance
- Mining and energy
- Litigation and arbitration
- Maritime law and admiralty law
- Real estate, construction and hotels

Your Key Contacts

Asia Pacific

David (Yuefeng) Lu
Office Managing Partner and
Member of the Board,
Guangzhou
yuefeng.lu@dentons.cn