

Overview

Being part of the German economy means being involved with one of the world's most significant economies. The German market has proven stable during unsteady times, and the real estate industry in particular is still very attractive to investors. Manufacturing continues to be the country's economic mainstay; however, the services sector is showing dramatic growth at a dynamic pace. Even though Germany is globally recognized as an exporting country, the domestic market is also very successful.

We are committed to your business interests and work with you to enable and expand your possibilities and potential. You can trust our expertise for all areas of commercial and tax law. Look to Dentons for assistance with:

- Banking and Finance/Financial Institutions Regulatory
- Capital Markets
- Competition and Antitrust
- Compliance
- Corporate
- Employment
- Energy
- Health Care
- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Life Sciences
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Private Equity
- Public Law
- Public Procurement
- Real Estate
- Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy
- Tax

As a truly cosmopolitan European city and the capital of one of the most important global economies, Berlin is a very attractive place for German and international businesses. Berlin is considered a center for the creation of new ideas and new industries and is the hub between Western, Central and Eastern Europe—geographically and with regard to economic integration. The Dentons office in Berlin offers advice across all major areas of commercial and tax law and additionally provides the full range of notarial services. You can rely on our long-standing experience in the market. As one of the leading law firms in the region, we can ensure your success, whether with negotiations, in litigation or with the implementation of your investment ambitions and business ideas.

Our front line team in Düsseldorf is renowned and deeply rooted in local markets, and has access to excellent connections. The longstanding and extensive experience we have concentrated in Düsseldorf guarantees you first-class advice covering sectors including heavy industries, finance, energy, automotive, life sciences and health care, information technology and public services, with a focus on the markets of the EU, the US, Japan and Turkey. We also advise you on all other matters related to international commercial law. Whether you are looking at national or international M&A transactions, real estate deals, regulatory legislation or complex competition or procurement law, we are well positioned to address your needs. We understand your motivation because we share the same entrepreneurial mindset.

Frankfurt is one of the most important international financial centers and home to the European Central Bank (ECB) as well as one of the world's leading stock exchanges. The city of Frankfurt presents a range of opportunities for institutional investors such as banks and investment funds in all asset classes. Our team at the Dentons Frankfurt office provides you with the full range of legal services, offering profound expertise to multinational conglomerates, institutional investors and banks. You benefit from our particular strengths in intellectual property, private equity and technology, stemming from our extensive experience working for leading domestic and international enterprises from the life sciences, digital media and entertainment, and consumer and luxury goods sectors.

Munich is one of the leading economic regions in Europe. The financially strong and rapidly growing city is, in particular due to its excellent business environment, of enormous importance for the German economy—both nationally and internationally. The city has special relevance for investors of important European and global industries. Market participants from the automotive and real estate industries as well as private equity investors and agents of the healthcare sector enjoy a well-developed infrastructure—along with all the advantages of a renowned center of education in Europe.

We connect substantiated local expertise with cross-border experience and can access our global teams of lawyers for any project. Use this benefit for your personal business goals.

Your Key Contacts

Europe

Andreas Ziegenhagen

Germany Managing Partner,
Frankfurt

D +49 69 45 00 12 144

andreas.ziegenhagen@dentons.com