

Overview

With an economy powered by both foreign investment and entrepreneurial Irish companies with ambitions beyond Ireland's shores, truly international global legal advisors are a priority for Irish-based businesses, providing a worldwide gateway for national and global clients.

Our Dublin office has built a best-in-class team, bringing with them highly-regarded reputations and a proven track record of excellence. With an in-depth knowledge of the Irish market, having advised blue-chip domestic and international clients on some of their most important transactions in recent years, our lawyers combine local sector expertise with access to global best practice and innovation of the world's largest law firm.

Your Key Contacts

Europe

Eavan Saunders

Office Managing Partner,

Dublin

D +353 1 5828102

eavan.saunders@dentons.com