

Overview

Dentons' full service office in the British Virgin Islands offers both corporate and litigation services. Our transaction team has notable expertise, advising on complex, high-value cross-border transactions across banking and finance, mergers and acquisitions, private equity and joint ventures, corporate reorganisations and regulatory matters. Our offshore corporate lawyers also work closely with corporate and fiduciary service providers to offer innovative and bespoke corporate services solutions to our clients.

The BVI litigation practice has extensive experience in the specialised areas of commercial litigation, insolvency and investment fund disputes, and cross-border liquidations.

At the Pan-Caribbean level, Dentons now serves clients in over ten key Caribbean countries clearly illustrating our capacity as the world's largest law firm to offer investors convenience, efficiency and true cross-border reach.
