

Overview

Based in Peru's seat of power and financial engine of Latin America's fastest growing economy, Dentons' Lima office offers a full-service corporate and litigation team focused on providing successful strategies to clients wherever their business takes them.

Home to one of the most important financial centers in the Southern Hemisphere, Lima accounts for nearly two-thirds of the Peru's industrial production. From heavy manufacturing to textiles, and a headquarter for major international banks, opportunity abounds in the capital city. Let Dentons Lima-based team help you take advantage, offering legal services in the following key areas:

- Banking and Finance
- Capital Markets
- Competition and Antitrust
- Compliance
- Consumer protection and competition
- Labor, Employment and Immigration
- Litigation and Dispute Resolution
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Mining
- Public Procurement
- Regulatory
- Tax
- Telecommunications and Data Protection
- White Collar

Our team understands the local business environment and offers creative comprehensive proposals that balance competing concerns and demands. With a pragmatic approach and a global vision, we provide innovative solutions to complex legal challenges that can help you here in Peru or abroad.

Your Key Contacts

Latin America and the Caribbean

Manuel Barrios

Office Managing Partner,
Lima

D +51 1 208 4200

manuel.barrios@dentons.com