

Overview

Dentons operates in association with The Law Firm of Wael A. Alissa, one of Saudi Arabia's leading law firms. Our Jeddah office is uniquely positioned to advise our clients on all aspects of doing business in Saudi Arabia.

The relationship between Dentons and Wael A. Alissa is remarkable, not only for our significant representations and qualifications, but also for how closely and effectively our two firms work together. Unlike other international law firms working in Saudi Arabia, we are fused together as one firm, fully integrated with the Dentons network. This unique makeup allows us to provide effective, high-quality legal representation in Saudi Arabia.

Our team in Jeddah and Riyadh advises on all major legal disciplines, including:

- Corporate transactions
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- IPOs
- Company setups
- Insolvency
- Restructuring and bankruptcy
- Aviation finance
- Banking and securities regulatory
- Employment
- Technology/media/telecommunications
- Public procurement
- Project finance
- Syndicated finance.

In addition, our team has more than two decades experience advising clients operating in the retail, infrastructure transportation, logistics, hospitality and leisure sectors. Regardless of the size or scope of your legal matter, you can trust us to address it effectively and efficiently.
