

Russia Desk in Paris

The members of Paris Russian Desk of Dentons speak our client's language, know their business practices and culture, and combine this with a strong and longstanding commitment in Russia.

The Russian desk provides clients with tailored and innovative advice on all aspects of transacting business in Russia including corporate M&A, banking and finance, labour, tax, competition, IP-IT, litigation and arbitration.

All the lawyers of our Russian Desk know the Russian legal system, the business customs and cultures within CIS countries but are also qualified and highly recognized specialists under French law.
