

Overview

Dentons is present in the Krasnodar region through a co-operation agreement with Advocates Bureau Yug (ABY).

Advocates Bureau Yug was founded in 1995 to provide comprehensive legal services at a highly professional level. The firm maintains standards of the highest quality in contemporary judicial practice, utilizing both international experience and knowledge of issues specific to our locality. ABY lawyers are quick to react to demands of the Clients and distinguish themselves by their professional attentiveness, strict adherence to ethical norms and dynamic approach while representing their interests. Furthermore, ABY lawyers demonstrate a full understanding of our Clients' needs and an acute awareness of the competitive sphere in which certain business activity is conducted. The firm invests a significant amount of time in what will yield fruits for the future.

ABY's highly professional results are founded on the individual approach and the value placed on the firm's Clients' interests. Sectioning of practice areas and cooperation with the international legal community contribute to this as well. ABY's professionalism is proved by its active participation in the events of International Bar Association (IBA, London), the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb, London), International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA, Brussels), European Business Association (AEB, Moscow), American Chamber of Commerce (AmCham, Moscow) and others.

ABY is highly experienced in supporting business development, including in the areas of commercial and industrial real estate, infrastructure, construction, transportation, agriculture, tourism, and telecommunications. ABY has a very strong litigation team.

ABY has a team of 8 experienced lawyers who continually seek to expand the areas in which they provide advice and service while acquiring practical experience solving highly complex problems across a range of practice areas. Due to the partnership with ABY Dentons is the only international law firm capable of providing full-service legal representation to Russian and foreign investors in this rapidly developing region.
