Overview

Honolulu is not only the capital and the business and trading hub of the Hawaiian Islands, but also a business crossroad of the Pacific. Benefit from a team that can help you take advantage of vast opportunities on Oahu and throughout the Islands, in an economy based on tourism, military defense, research and real estate development. Our team provides you the benefit of deep community roots, long experience in dispute resolution, transactional matters, and government relations. We help local and international clients identify and solve issues involving real estate construction and development, class actions, health care, corporate governance, creditors’ rights, intellectual property, public policy/regulatory, and corporate governance, and more on all islands and across the globe.

We bring together top-tier talent customized to your industry, region and business needs to develop strategies to stay ahead of the curve. Rely on us wherever your business may take you.
