

Overview

Nestled in Kentucky's famed Bluegrass region, Lexington has been dubbed the "Horse Capital of the World." Known to attract the entrepreneurially-minded, the city has been ranked by Forbes as one of the "Best Places for Business and Careers," and Business Facilities magazine ranked Lexington as having one of the "Most Educated Workforces" in America.

The Lexington office provides outside general counsel services to privately held companies, and handles complex transactions and litigation for organizations of all sizes, from startups to Fortune 500 companies. We provide full-service business and tax counsel, helping clients close deals, manage risks, and evaluate and pursue new opportunities. In addition to transactions and litigation, our services include estate planning, tax strategy, employee benefits plan consulting, and advising businesses from various industries on economic development matters, including private-public partnerships.

Our Lexington location has a long history of involvement in successful real estate development and community revitalization projects. Our lawyers are active participants in community organizations, local and statewide through the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, which has recognized our office as one of the "Best Places to Work in Kentucky."

Our Lexington lawyers have been honored in Benchmark Litigation, have earned rankings in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business, and have been named as "Lawyers of the Year" in The Best Lawyers in America. We have also been recognized in Kentucky Super Lawyers lists.
