

Overview

Dentons' Orange County office is committed to providing you nationally recognized capabilities in business litigation, corporate law, product liability and mass tort litigation, real estate transactions and litigation, bankruptcy and creditors' rights, financial restructuring, intellectual property, e-business and Internet matters.

Our Orange County lawyers represent lenders, loan servicers, loan originators and other members of the financial services community in sophisticated loan origination, restructuring and related financial transactions, as well as loan sale and purchase transactions. Additionally, benefit from our significant experience in commercial, business and real estate litigation. We can counsel you in foreclosure and receivership actions, loan repurchase disputes, lender liability issues and creditors' rights and debtor protection matters. Our capabilities are further enhanced by our experience in secured transactions involving real property and loan sales.

Dentons' Orange County litigators are regularly retained to represent trustees, debtors, committees and creditors in large and complex bankruptcy cases. As such, we have successfully negotiated and implemented plans of reorganization, debtor in possession financings, sales of assets and settlements with corporate insiders and directors. We also regularly defend against and pursue all manner of litigation which arises from bankruptcies and insolvencies.

Our Orange County Corporate team serves as outside counsel to public and private companies in a wide variety of industries, including restaurants, food and beverage, technology, life sciences and retail. We advise you on a host of transactional matters, such as mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and strategic alliances, financing and corporate governance.

As nationally recognized leaders in the product liability and mass tort practice area, we represent companies in traditional product liability and mass tort litigation alleging design, manufacturing and warning issues as local, regional and national counsel.

Our highly regarded Intellectual Property and Technology team helps you address today's unique challenges and strategically create, manage and benefit from your intellectual property assets. Our Orange County lawyers are experienced in all stages of clients' intellectual property portfolios, including initial searches and clearance, US Patent and Trademark Office pursuit and maintenance of registrations, cease and desist activities, protection of proprietary technology and related transactions and litigation support.

Always staying current, Dentons' Orange County office is also a base for our lawyers with broad experience representing both public and private companies in the high-tech and Internet industries. We have extensive track records representing Internet companies and other high-tech startups with respect to their technology agreements, joint ventures and strategic partnerships.

Frequent coordination with our offices in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Silicon Valley and San Diego—in addition to our offices worldwide—gives Dentons' Orange County office both a significant California presence and a global perspective.

Your Key Contacts

United States

Ronald D. Kent

Office Managing Partner,
Orange County

D +1 949 732 3726

ronald.kent@dentons.com