Overview

Hanna Szymańska, advocate, senior associate in Dentons' Warsaw office, is a member of the Energy and Natural Resources practice team. She advises companies in the energy sector, including renewable energy sources.

She gained experience as an in-house lawyer at one of the largest international energy groups, where she handled renewable energy development projects, including wind farms and photovoltaic power plants. Her experience comprises providing transactional advice, including relating to the investment process, as well as various regulatory and corporate matters. She also advises on energy supply and purchase agreements and other contractual issues.

Hanna has represented clients in civil and administrative court proceedings, as well as advised on the day-to-day operations of the energy sector companies.
