

COVID-19 Major Financial Support Programs – General Overview

March 26, 2020

Updated: April 28, 2020

As countries all over the world struggle with the COVID-19 epidemic, financial resources to support the purchase of equipment and materials and fight the virus are in short supply.

To assist governments and private sector companies in identifying potential sources of funding, Dentons has created a short overview of the major international financial organizations and regional development banks that have announced programs giving direct and indirect financial support to countries for COVID-19. The chart includes a summary of the individual financial assistance programs and what countries are eligible.

Please feel free to reach out to us if you would like more information about these programs, or we can be of assistance with any of your legal needs.
