Non-compliance with orders	Violation can be punishable by a misdemeanor or a fine. But during his March 22 address, Governor Newsom said he expected social pressure--not policing--to help enforce his stay-at-home order. He said he doesn't' want to shut down parks or beaches, and that National Guard troops will only be deployed to help law enforcement "make sure all our logistics are operational." Based on this, it seems prosecution on the state level (i.e., by the California Attorney General's Office) is unlikely. But that is usually the case. Prosecution will most likely vary from county to county based the local District Attorney's decision to prosecute (either under a penal code or health and safety code violation) or the local City Attorney's decision (possibly based on a municipal code violation). Separately, the mayor of the city of Los Angeles and City Attorney Mike Feuer announced that the city "Safer at Home" emergency order will be strongly enforced. City Attorney Feuer assigned a Neighborhood Prosecutor team to work with the LAPD to seek compliance with and enforce the order. In addition, the Mayor announced a Business Ambassador's program, which deploys City workers and volunteers with the Mayor's Crisis Response Team to businesses that appear to be out of compliance in order to secure voluntary compliance. If voluntary compliance is not achieved, the ambassadors will share information with the City Attorney and LAPD for further follow up. The new EO also waives the liability and civil penalty sections of the law. The EO impacts notices issued between March 4 and the "end of this emergency" (which is undefined). However, the notice must still provide: (1) a brief statement of the basis for reducing the notification period; (2) the substantive requirements set forth in the Fed-WARN Act and its implementing regulations; and (3) the following statement: "If you have lost you job or been laid off temporarily, you may be eligible for Unemployment Insurance (UI). Use of private property as temporary hospitals	According to press reports, the State is making plans to set up temporary hospitals in various locations, but as of this time, it has not issued guidance or orders related to the use of private property as temporary hospitals.	According to press reports, the State has leased the Denver Convention Center from mid-April to December 31, 2020, for use as temporary hospital space. It originally planned to provide for 2,000 patients, but as a result of reduced demand for hospital space, planned capacity has been reduced to 250 beds. Construction of the temporary hospital facilities was completed in April. The facility was scheduled to open June 4, but as of June 10 it had not been necessary to use it. The state continues to lease the facility in case it is needed during a second wave in the fall. Business Interruption Coverage	According to news sources, business owners in Colorado are finding that their insurance policies do not cover damages that result from bacterial or virus contamination. In essence, certain policies require the business to have direct physical damage, such as widespread contamination of the facility to be covered. And even if covered, some businesses only are covered for a few days of lost income, not the weeks or months a pandemic can last. 	According to news sources, on May 18, 2020, Governor Polis announced that he will spend $1.67 billion in federal coronavirus aid, directing more than half of it to the state's schools and colleges and universities. It appears that Polis will spend $960 million of the federal money on education. Of that, $500 million is slated to be transferred to local K-12 school districts and $450 million is earmarked for higher education institutions. None of the dollars can backfill lost revenue from the economic downturn, however, and must be spent to address the impacts of COVID-19, the disease caused by the coronavirus. Reopening Plans	Gov. David Ige unveiled a four-phase plan for reopening Hawaii's economy at a news conference on 5/18/2020. Hawaii is currently in phase 1, with retailers and shopping malls recently allowed to reopen. The next phase slated for early June will include a much broader reopening of the economy that caters to Hawaii residents. Under phase 2 of the state's reopening plans, "medium-risk" businesses — including salons and barbers, restaurants and gyms — will be allowed to once again operate. Also considered medium-risk: Movie theaters, houses of worship and museums. These venues will all have to maintain social distancing guidelines. But "high-risk" businesses, like bars and clubs, will remain closed until phase 3. >https://www.hawaiinewsnow.com/2020/05/18/governor-detail-plan-reopening-medium-risk-businesses-including-salons/ >https://governor.hawaii.gov/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Gov_Reopening-Presentation-Slide-Deck_18-May-2020.pdf >https://www.mauicounty.gov/DocumentCenter/View/121905/Governors-Guidance-on-Designated-Businesses-and-Operations	Yes. http://www.honolulu.gov/rep/site/may/may_docs/Emergency_Order_No._2020-14.pdf	Yes. https://www.mauicounty.gov/2370/COVID-19-Coronavirus-Information	Yes. https://www.hawaiicounty.gov/Home/Components/News/News/2174/	Yes. >https://www.kauai.gov/Portals/0/Civil_Defense/Emergency%20Proclamations/Mayor%27s%20Emergency%20Rule%20%2311%20%28certified%29%20-%20signed.pdf >https://www.kauai.gov/Portals/0/Civil_Defense/Emergency%20Proclamations/Mayor%27s%20Emergency%20Rule%20%2310.pdf

Private health insurance coverage (testing, coverage, treatment)	With the enactment of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act on March 18, 2020, the federal government took action to ensure access to COVID-19 testing. The legislation requires Medicare, Medicaid, all group health plans, and individual health insurance policies to cover testing and associated visits related to the diagnosis of COVID-19 during the federally-declared emergency period. In addition, the new law gives states the option to provide Medicaid coverage of COVID-19 testing for uninsured residents with 100% federal financing. You will need to work with your health care provider for more information on your specific treatment costs within Hawaii. If you do not have health insurance, you are urged to call a community health center to talk about your options. Despite the federal promise of waiving fees, some individuals are still reporting high copay charges, while other insurance companies are waiving testing fees, but only if you test positive. So it's vital that you speak with your health care provider before proceeding to get tested.

Small business relief programs	Federal CARES Act: The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act provides relief for small businesses that have trouble covering payroll and operating expenses because of the COVID-19 pandemic. The new law creates a Small Business Administration (SBA) loan program, called the "Paycheck Protection Program" (PPP), that expands benefits and eligibility for SBA disaster loans, covers payments on existing SBA loans, and creates new tax credits to help cover the cost of paid leave and payroll. The Hawaii District Office (HDO) oversees the delivery of SBA's programs throughout Hawaii. For a list of all the services and information available through the HDO, visit: https://www.sba.gov/offices/district/hi/honolulu/about-us. The program provides up to $100,000 of relief to registered and compliant Hawai'i businesses for new employees hired after 03/01/2020. The program provides an initial $500 payment for each new employee to offset training and associated costs upon notification to the department of the initial hiring of the employee. After six months of continuous employment and upon receipt of certification from the employer that they have retained the employee, the DLIR will issue a second payment of $500. Business interuption coverage	An increasing number of state legislatures have proposed bills to force the insurance industry to shoulder much of the burden of the economic downturn brought on by the global COVID-19 pandemic. The crux of these bills center on "business interruption" coverage – a type of insurance coverage typically applicable only to losses resulting from physical damage to property, such as that caused by a fire or earthquake, and generally inapplicable to losses caused by viral or bacterial pandemics. These bills would force many commercial property insurers to provide retroactive coverage to insureds for losses resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic regardless of the policies' exclusions and the existence of physical damage to the insured's property and regardless of premiums charged and the underwriting considerations made by the insurance companies when they issued these policies. As of 05/28/2020, Hawaii has not proposed any bills that would require commercial property insurers to retroactively cover losses that insureds statewide have accumulated because of the pandemic.

Day care centers	Governor Reynolds encourages childcare providers to stay open to provide quality, safe care to Iowa's children during this critical time. The updated guidance has been developed in close consultation with the Iowa Department of Public Health (IDPH). Childcare programs provide an essential support for working families. We need to ensure childcare for essential workforce, including healthcare, first responders, critical infrastructure—which includes food service and grocery workers. DHS also encourages childcare settings to limit rooms to 10 individuals per room when possible, and to increase space between children. Recess, activities and hallway passing should be staggered to limit interactions https://dhs.iowa.gov/childcare-covid-19	Refers residents to the Iowa Department of Public Health website. Courts and Legislative Sessions
Status of state courts	The court's March 14 order postponed all jury trials. Today's order expands on that order by allowing any party, including the prosecutor, defense counsel, defendant, victims, and/or witnesses, to appear remotely by videoconference or telephone for many court procedures. It also postpones all non-jury criminal trials until April 20 or later and all non-jury civil trials until May 4 or later. District courts will continue to conduct in-person trials and hearings already in progress. For criminal and emergency cases that cannot be conducted by videoconference or telephone, they will be conducted in-person. Session changes	House and Senate Suspend Legislative Session through May 15.	Iowa Code Section 21.4 requires that each Council meeting shall be held at a place reasonably accessible to the public and at a time reasonably convenient to the public, unless for good cause such a place or time is impossible or impracticable. Given the Governor's prohibition on gatherings of ten or more persons during the COVID19 outbreak and further given Section Nine of the Governor's March 19, 2020 proclamation suspending the regulatory provisions of Iowa Code §§ 21.8, 26.12, and 414.12, or any other statute imposing a requirement to hold a public meeting or hearing, the City Council has determined that a meeting at a physical place is impossible or impracticable and all Council meetings for the time being will be conducted electronically with the public allowed to attend per the instructions on this agenda. Meeting minutes will continue to be provided per the City's normal course of business.	The Cedar Rapids City Council will hold an electronic regular City Council meeting on April 28, 2020 at 4:00 p.m. An electronic meeting is being held because a meeting in person is impossible or impractical due to concerns for the health and safety of Council members, staff and the public presented by COVID-19. An electronic meeting is allowed by Iowa Code Section 21.8 and Governor Reynolds' Proclamation of Disaster Emergency, Section 69, dated April 2, 2020.

Political election delays						For the June 2, 2020 primary, please note the following: We actively encourage you to vote by mail. Our mailer has been already sent and the first 12,000 ballots have been mailed out. We will be combining voting locations for the June 2 primary. We are doing this for two reasons. First, many of our election workers are older individuals. We wish to limit any health risks they may be exposed to during the voting process. Second, we are making an effort to limit voting locations in schools, daycares, and churches. We hope this limited exposure reduces the transfer of COVID-19. Voting locations will be primarily in government buildings. Notices of changed voting locations will be sent to voters in mid-May. A listing will also be made available online in the ensuing weeks. The June 2, 2020 Primary Election will be held. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. - 9 p.m.

Key Questions
Essential vs. Non-essential	Essential services personnel includes the following categories: • Healthcare providers • Law enforcement • Fire & EMS personnel • Long Term Care personnel • Residential Support Facility personnel • Public Health & Emergency Management personnel On 3/26 - Gov. Reynolds said Iowa will rely on the U.S Department of Homeland Security's list of essential industries.		The City of Cedar Rapids is canceling all non-essential public meetings until March 31, 2020. This includes any gatherings or meetings that do not require time-sensitive action. Examples of non-essential meetings include public open houses for future construction projects, public events such as Fire's Adult Resource Expo, and City commission or committee meetings without critical/time-sensitive agenda items. Residents can visit the City's events calendar for updated meeting schedules.	Essential services personnel includes the following categories: Healthcare providers Law enforcement Fire & EMS personnel Long Term Care personnel Residential Support Facility personnel Public Health & Emergency Management personnel Isolation guidance for essential services personnel is a bit different. Essential services personnel are still allowed to go to work as long as they remain asymptomatic and monitor their temperature at the beginning and end of their shift. Business Interruption Coverage	Unlikely. No legislation for retroactive coverage has been proposed. From the Insurance Commissioner: Business owners are encouraged to read their policies closely. However, it is the Department's understanding that it is unlikely that a business policy would cover losses related to COVID-19, as most business policies have communicable disease exclusions. Businesses should read their policies closely for all exclusions. Communications from the Kansas Insurance Department that provide general information should not dissuade a business from filling a claim if there is a possibility of coverage. Business Interruption Coverage	YES. S.B. 477: Mandatory Coverage for COVID-19 Business Losses and Notice of Exclusions, http://www.legis.la.gov/legis/ViewDocument.aspx?d=1168164. S.B. 477 requires property insurance policies that include coverage for loss of use, loss of occupancy or business interruption coverage "to include among the perils covered under the policy, coverage for business interruption" due to COVID-19, up to the limits of the policy. The coverage would apply retroactively to March 11, 2020, the date of Louisiana's state of emergency. The proposed bill states: "…notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, every policy of insurance in force in this state on March 11, 2020, and thereafter insuring against loss or damage to property that includes the loss of use, loss of occupancy, or business interruption shall be construed to include among the perils covered under that policy, coverage for business interruption due to imminent threat posed by COVID-19." The coverage proposed by S.B. 477 would indemnify the insured, subject to the limits of the policy, for any loss of business or business interruption for the duration of the declared state of emergency. Further, S.B. 477 would require all insurance policies covering business interruption issued on and after August 1, 2020, to include a notice of all policy exclusions, with the notice to be signed by the insured. The notice would be assumed to be part of the policy when issued and delivered, regardless of whether it is actually attached to the delivered policy. A properly completed notice would create a rebuttable presumption that the insured knowingly contracted for coverage with the stated exclusions. H.B. 858: Mandatory Coverage for COVID-19 Business Losses, http://custom.statenet.com/public/resources.cgi?id=ID:bill:LA2020000H858&cuiq=f1e7c3b0-a26f-5e34-a46d-

Does state order supersede city and county orders?	Sometimes. No local orders regarding dental or medical procedures are permitted. The locally run county health departments in Davidson County, Hamilton County, Knox County, Madison County, Shelby County, and Sullivan County have the authority to issue additional orders or measures which may permit to a greater degree or restrict to a greater degree the opening, closure, or operation of businesses.

Does state order supersede city and county orders?	Order No. GA-28 provides that it shall supersede any conflicting order issued by local officials in response to the COVID-19 disaster, but only to the extent that such a local order restricts Covered Services, allows gatherings prohibited by this executive order, or expands the list or scope of services set forth in GA-28. Section 418.016 of the Texas Government Code provides that the governor may suspend the provisions of any regulatory statute prescribing the procedures for the conduct of state business or the orders or rules of a state agency if strict compliance with the provisions, orders, or rules would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in coping with a disaster.					Harris County's July 1, 2020 amended order re Health & Safety Policy and Face Coverings shall incorporate and adopt the most recent executive order GA-28 issued by Governor Greg Abbott on June 26, 2020, and any subsequent orders by the Governor relating to the expanded opening of Texas in response to the COVID-19 disaster.

However, affected employers are still encouraged to reach out to the Department of Labor and Agency of Commerce and Community Development for assistance when they are contemplating a layoff. Source: https://labor.vermont.gov/warn-act-and-notice-potential-layoffs-act The Vermont Notice of Potential Layoffs Act (NPLA) and Vermont Notice of Potential Layoffs Act Rule (applies to employers with 50 or more employees) - The NPLA requires covered employers to provide written notice if there is a business closure or mass layoff to both: - The Vermont secretary of Commerce and Community Development and commissioner of Labor at the Vermont Department of Labor (VDOL), 45 days before a closing or mass layoff. - The local chief elected official or administrative officer of the municipality where the business closing or mass layoff is to occur, affected employees, and bargaining agent, if any, 30 days before a closing or mass layoff. The Vermont Mass Separation Notification Administrative Rule (applies to all employers) - All Vermont employers must notify the VDOL if there is a mass separation. A mass separation is a separation of either: - At least 20% of the total number of workers employed in a single establishment. - At least 50% of the total number of workers employed in any division or department. - Ten or more workers employed in a single establishment.
State tax filing deadline days	The Scott administration said in a news release that businesses struggling during the outbreak would not be penalized for failing to pay meals and rooms or sales and use tax “until further notice.” Businesses that are "unable to meet" March 25 and April 25 filing deadlines for remitting the taxes will not be charged penalties or interest. In addition, the governor’s office said Vermonters would not be penalized for filing late income taxes or corporate income taxes until July 15 — three months after the typical deadline. Remote online notarization allowed	The Vermont Secretary of State issued an emergency administrative rules permitting signers and Notaries to satisfy the personal appearance requirement via a secure communication link. However eNotary allowed	No - The signer and the notary public must both physically sign a tangible piece of paper. Electronic signatures are not permissible.
Remote Document Execution	Not specific to real estate documents - The signer and the notary public must both physically sign a tangible piece of paper. Electronic signatures are not permissible. The Rules permit the signer to sign the record, and transmit that signed record (by mail or electronic means such as email, facsimile, or photograph) to the notary public. The notary public must then affix the notarial act certificate to the record received from the signer. - The final record resulting from the above process (with the copy of the signer's signature and the original or "wet signature" from the notary public) will be the "original" of the document. This means that, if the authenticity of the document is called into question or reviewed at some future date, this final record will be accorded the "self-authenticating" status of an "original" version of a record, as that term is defined in the Vermont Rules of Evidence. - This provision is included in the Rules for legal purposes. Notaries public and signers need not be overly concerned about the use of the term "original", though both parties should remain aware that the final record, with either a copy or the wet signature of signer, and the notary public's signature is the "original" of the document under law.
