

An overview of the main innovations of the Kazakhstan's APPC

June 10, 2021

Dentons Kazakhstan's Dispute Resolution practice has prepared a series of four articles dedicated to the Administrative Procedure and Process-Related Code (the "APPC"), which comes into force on July 1, 2021. Learn more about the APPC and its impact on administrative legal proceedings in Kazakhstan:

Administrative procedure: overview of the main innovations of the APPC

This article considers the procedure for the implementation of administrative procedures. The issues related to legal proceedings are outside the scope of this article.

Read more

Administrative legal proceedings: key features of Kazakhstan's APPC

This article covers the most significant innovations in administrative proceedings with the entry into force of the APPC.

Read more

Administrative discretion under the APPC: opportunities and limitations

This article examines the requirements, opportunities and limitations for application of this new legal instrument.

Read more

Burden of proof and standards of proof under the APPC

This article examines the changes to the legislation on administrative proceedings, including the new rules regarding the distribution of the burden of proof in public law disputes resolved in accordance with the APPC.

Read more

Your Key Contacts

Aigoul Kenjebayeva

Kazakhstan and Central Asia

Managing Partner, Almaty

D +7 727 258 2380

aigoul.kenjebayeva@dentons.com

Daniyar Toigonbaev

Partner, Almaty

D +7 727 258 2380

daniyar.toigonbaev@dentons.com

Artur Utarbayev

Counsel, Almaty

D +7 727 258 2380

artur.utarbayev@dentons.com