

Global tax guide to doing business in... 2019

DENTONS

May 1, 2019

Globalization has diminished the barriers encountered by multinational businesses. However, the tax ramifications of establishing operations in a particular country remain at the core of each business plan relating to geographic expansion. Businesses across the globe are faced with tremendous pressure to expand into new markets and increase revenue, but they are expected to mitigate any excessive tax liability in the process.

How can you structure your global business in the most tax-efficient manner?

Our Global tax guide to doing business in ... highlights the complexities of corporate tax systems in 28 countries across Africa, the Americas, Asia Pacific, Australia and Europe. From establishing the appropriate business vehicle, financing a corporate subsidiary and adhering to the requisite transfer pricing regulations to computing corporate income taxes, payroll taxes and indirect taxes for your operations, this edition of our annual insight piece will help to navigate you through an ever-changing global tax landscape.

Read the guide

Your Key Contacts

Mark Jadd

Partner, Toronto

D +1 416 863 4700

mark.jadd@dentons.com

Camilo Cortés

Partner, Bogotá

D +57 601 746 7000

camilo.cortes@dentons.com

Michael Graf

Office Managing Partner,
Co-Head of Europe Tax,
Frankfurt

D +49 69 4500 12 215

M +49 176 240 43 209

michael.graf@dentons.com

John L. Harrington

Partner, Washington, DC

D +1 202 408 6352

M +1 703 801 7097

john.harrington@dentons.com

Sandra Hazan
Partner, Paris
D +33 1 42 68 47 85
sandra.hazan@dentons.com

Edmund Leow, SC
Senior Partner, Singapore
D +65 6885 3613
edmund.leow@dentons.com

Cameron Steele
Partner, Sydney
D +61 2 9931 4738
cameron.steele@dentons.com

Alex Thomas
Partner, London
D +44 20 7246 7547
alex.thomas@dentons.com