

2021 guide to Doing Business in Australia

August 11, 2021 (Updated on September 20, 2021)

Read Dentons' 2021 Doing business in Australia guide.

Despite the ongoing challenges of the pandemic, Australia's economy remains strong, and continues to provide opportunities for foreign investment.

The Australian Government's effective and proactive response to the COVID-19 pandemic has continued to protect the Australian economy. The 2021 edition of Dentons' guide to Doing Business in Australia provides guidance to companies considering investing in or operating in Australia maximising the vast opportunities that continue to exist.

Australia's flexible and resilient economy, strong institutions and open markets set the scene for foreign investment growth across a number of industry sectors. Known for its technological readiness, Australia is fast becoming a centre of innovation and a gateway to the Asia-Pacific region.

The strong foundations for investment in Australia are supported by an efficient regulatory and legislative framework. Drawing from the insights of our skilled practitioners and industry experts, we provide an outline of key legal and tax considerations relevant to doing business in Australia, including on foreign investment, regulatory developments, data privacy and more.
