June 25, 2021

CDC Director, Dr. Rochelle Walensky, signed an Order extending the CDC Eviction Order, which temporarily halts nonpayment evictions for tenants who invoke the Order's protections through submission of a CDC Hardship Declaration.

The CDC Eviction Order that was scheduled to expire on June 30, 2021 is now extended through July 31, 2021. Yesterday's order provides that "this is intended to be the final extension of the moratorium."
