

The Future of the Affordable Care Act (ACA): Implications of November's Elections and a Supreme Court Decision

November 9, 2020

During this webinar, HMA and Dentons discussed how the political landscape is shifting as a result of the presidential, congressional and state elections, and how this shift and the Supreme Court's decision will drive the future of the ACA and health care coverage in the US. While any significant change will take time to implement, uncertainty will require action and planning from all health care stakeholders as they navigate the emerging scenarios and position for future shifts. During this webinar, HMA and Dentons discuss the specific pathways that change could take.
