

Overview

As the largest law firm in the world Dentons is uniquely placed to provide high quality counsel to our clients, both within and outside the Europe region, as they navigate the potential implications of this momentous and unprecedented decision.

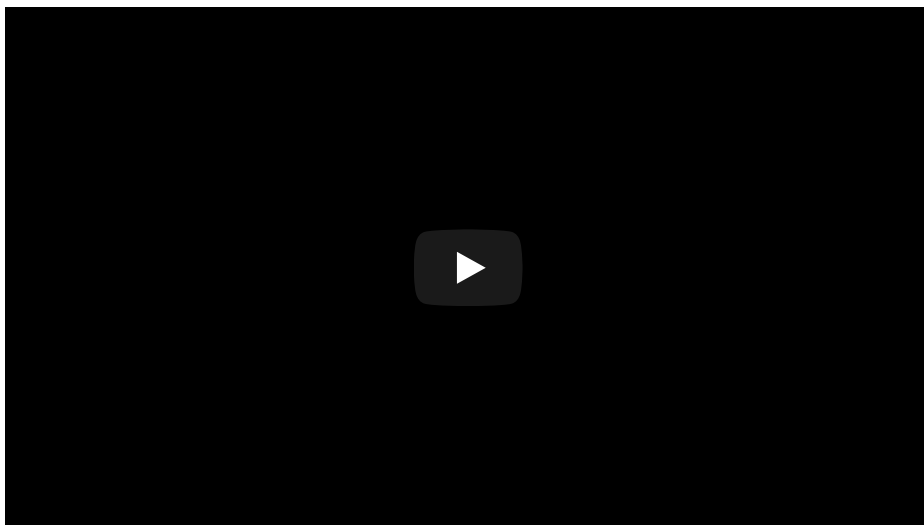

From referendum to Brexit

View our timeline here

As the countdown to the 29 March deadline begins in earnest and uncertainty prevails our experts have put together a series of resources:

- Brexit and Beyond Webinar series: International Perspective. The view from outside the UK, recorded Wednesday 30 January, 2019.

- Brexit and Beyond Webinar: What to expect next? Listen to the latest in our webinar series, recorded Wednesday 16 January, 2019.

- Dentons Brexit brochure - 'Brexit and Beyond' – Key business issues relating to Brexit with or without a deal
- Key Priorities brochure – The advice we have and can provide as a firm for those who may either be worried about their position or who are looking for third-party assurance on steps they have already taken.
- Brexit Jargon Buster – Helping cut through the seemingly endless acronyms and soundbites the Brexit saga has amassed!

Your Key Contacts

United Kingdom

Jeremy Cohen
UKME Chief Executive Officer and Partner, London
D +44 20 7246 7371
jeremy.cohen@dentons.com

Stuart Hopper
Director of Practice
Development and Innovation,
London
D +44 20 7320 6052

