Dentons' US COVID-19/Pandemic Client Special Situations Team

In response to the evolving COVID-19 pandemic, Dentons has a cross-practice COVID-19/Pandemic Client Special Situations Team (PSST) in the US to help navigate this fast-moving situation, drawing on the full scope of our global legal, policy and innovation capabilities.

Reflecting the Firm's talent, the PSST is led by a diverse group of lawyers and professionals. Coordinating with colleagues in the US and globally, the PSST is dedicated to offering clients the best of our insights, guidance and counsel in addressing COVID-19 related issues, which include:

- Return-to-Work Toolkit: Evolving toolkit designed to help you navigate this rapidly changing legal and regulatory environment, and plot your course for the future.
- US COVID-19 50-State Tracker: A review of state and local governmental orders, directives and financial assistance that may impact our clients and communities
- 50-State Guide to Contract Reformation: This examination will help you evaluate the availability of equitable relief through contract reformation, rescission, or other remedies.
- Regular Webinars on COVID-19: Address critical issues and policy development related to COVID-19
- COVID-19 Small Business Resource Hub: Identification of a variety of financial support available to small businesses during the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as updates on pending legislation
- Labor & Employment Tracker: Information to help you understand what responsibilities you have as an employer in relation to COVID-19, across multiple countries
- Force Majeure Hub: Articles, videos and insights that offer input from our partners across the world regarding commercial contracts, supply chain disruptions and cancellation of conferences and travel for business meetings

- COVID-19 mailing list: Receive insights and invitations related to COVID-19
- Dentons US Client Special Situations Team: Read about our full offerings here and see our full team here
