

Overview

Building on our strong state and local government affairs practices, Dentons 50, a full-service, 50-state public policy and advocacy network offers unrivaled reach and depth in state capitols across the nation. Comprised of professionals with local expertise and experience managing policy issues in centers of power at the state and local levels, Dentons 50 is a comprehensive, centralized resource for any business faced with complex, multistate policy matters.

We provide on-the-ground support for, as well as management of, multi-state public policy and advocacy initiatives. A "force multiplier," our network has the ability to quickly mobilize, organize and activate public policy campaigns through targeted nationwide legislative and regulatory tracking; quick-turnaround high-caliber analysis of state, federal and local issues; and visibility and relationship-building in new markets.
