Overview

Jayne is a Corporate partner in the Firms' London office, advising on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and private equity transactions.

She focuses on corporate real estate transactions where she acts for investors (including real estate funds, private equity funds and institutions), asset managers, developers and high net worth individuals/family offices. Jayne's practice is international and she regularly advises clients on structuring and implementing the ownership and/or corporate acquisition arrangements which overlay the real estate transaction, both onshore and offshore. She has particular expertise in drafting and negotiating performance fee arrangements both from the perspective of the investor and the manager. In addition, Jayne advises large corporates and family offices on domestic and European acquisitions of non-real-estate-related businesses.
