

Jesús Durán

Partner

Partner

Madrid

D +34 91 43 22 905

jesus.duran@dentons.com

Overview

Jesús is head of the Corporate group in Spain and also heads the Private Equity practice. Prior to joining the firm, Jesús worked at Clifford Chance and King & Wood Mallesons.

Jesús specializes in M&A, Buy-Outs and divestment strategies and has wide transactional experience in the Financial institutions, Energy, Infrastructure, Communications and Real Estate sectors. Jesús is also a leading Private Equity (including fund formation) and transactional insurance (W&I) lawyer.

Among his main clients are TPG, Portobello Capital, Alantra, Artá Capital, Cabify, Idealista, Servihabitat, Parques Reunidos, AIG, Euclid, Liberty and HCC.

Recognition

Jesús is recognized as one of the leading Private Equity lawyers in Spain by the international directory Chambers Europe. Jesús Durán continues to be recognised within the market and is praised by clients as "thoughtful, hard-working and very efficient."

Insights

- 2014 – Contributions of Branches of Activity (La Aportación de Rama de Actividad), Chapter VII of Iberdrola's Annual Law Journal
- 2012 – Private Equity Issues in Crisis (Problemática del Capital Riesgo en Tiempos de Crisis), Corporate Report for Lawyers (Práctica Mercantil para Abogados), La Ley – Wolters Kluwer

Activities and Affiliations

Memberships

- Member of the Madrid Bar Association (ICAM)

Prior and Present Employment

- Partner, Dentons (2015 – to date)
- Senior Associate, Clifford Chance (2006 – 2015)
- Associate, King & Wood Mallesons, (1999 – 2006)

Areas of focus

Practices

- Corporate
- Private Equity

Industry sectors

- Private Equity
- Media, Entertainment and Sports

Issues and opportunities

- Crowdfunding

Education

- London University, 1999, LL.M.
- College of Europe, 1997, Master in European Law
- Columbia Law School, 1994, Law
- Universidad Complutense de Madrid, 1994, Degree in Law

Languages

- English
- Spanish