Overview

Jon Hutchens (He/Him/His) is a member of Dentons' Tax practice, and provides advice on tax matters in a wide variety of transactions. His experience covers a range of U.S. federal tax topics, including domestic and international mergers, acquisitions and dispositions, both taxable and tax-free. Together with colleagues around the world, Jon also counsels on matters relating to corporate financing structures and financial instruments, as well as general tax planning. Jon also works closely with Dentons' Trusts, Estates and Wealth Preservation Group to advise families and individuals on the U.S. tax consequences of their investment and immigration decisions.
