Overview

Karina Pylypczuk is an associate in our Employment & Labour group.

She provides advice to employers and management in both the private and public sectors in all areas of employment and labour law. This includes grievance arbitrations, human rights and accommodation issues, wrongful dismissal litigation, employment standards and occupational health and safety.

Prior to joining Dentons as an Associate, Karina was an associate at a prominent boutique labour and employment firm. She frequently contributes to articles and publications on current legal issues and has presented at a number of conferences and client training sessions on issues such as attendance management, social media use in the workplace and accommodation.

Karina also has experience on advising clients on complex workplace harassment investigations.
