Overview

Kristin is an associate in the Dentons London office. She is a member of the Dentons Capital Markets practice group and has more than three years' experience advising issuers, underwriters, trustees and agency providers on a wide range of capital markets products. Kristin also has three years' experience advising clients in relation to various litigious and commercial matters which she obtained in South Africa prior to relocating to London.

Kristin's focus includes advising trustees and agency providers on a wide range of capital markets products, including Eurobonds, EMTN programmes, loan participation notes, equity-linked issues, covered bonds, Islamic finance, structured products and a wide range of "post-issue" matters (such as liability management transactions, consent solicitations, exercise of trustee discretion and restructurings).

Kristin also has experience advising issuers (corporates and financial institutions) and underwriters on straight debt issues, amendments, programme updates and establishments, convertible and exchangeable bond issuances and liability management transactions.
