Overview

Neil is a corporate partner in our London office advising on share sales, business sales, joint ventures, fund establishments and restructurings. His significant M&A experience covers both the UK and cross border, particularly emerging markets, and he has acted for a number of clients in the Middle East, having previously been seconded to our Dubai office for over three years.

Neil has particular equity capital markets experience, including advising in relation to the UKLA Listing Rules, the AIM Rules of the London Stock Exchange and the UK Takeover Code.

Recognition

- Recommended by Legal 500: "very skilled in legal analysis and quick in understanding."
- Chambers Global: clients regard Neil as a "superb corporate lawyer" and a "particularly able individual."
