Overview

Gretchen Liu serves as a member of Dentons Global Advisory Committee and a vice-chairman of the Dentons China Region Advisory Committee. She is also the head and a senior partner of Dentons Shanghai.

With over 20 years of legal experience, Gretchen has won high recognition from clients and the industry for her professional competence and dedication. She is particularly proficient in company commercial matters, as well as complicated civil and commercial litigation, arbitration and other forms of dispute resolution.

Gretchen is good at adopting pragmatic approaches, accurately grasping the process and direction of dispute resolution, identifying the right litigation strategies, and flexibly responding to changes in litigation situations. While staying dedicated to helping clients win disputes, she also skillfully applies her legal knowledge to assist clients in achieving reconciliation, minimizing the cost of clients in dispute resolution.

In addition to advising clients on dispute resolution, Gretchen also serves as a legal counsel for many central enterprises, state-owned enterprises, foreign-funded enterprises, and well-known banks, with a focus on risk identification, internal control, processes optimization, key measures design, and system building.
