Overview

Sandra Sok is a member of Dentons' Government Contracts group where she advises contractors on government contract performance and litigation matters. Sandra received her JD from the University Colorado School of Law. While in law school, she served as a judicial intern to Judge Christine M. Arguello in the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, and was the Vice President and Treasurer for the Asian Pacific American Law Students Association.

Sandra received her BA, cum laude, in Psychology and Social Behavior from the University of California, Irvine (UCI). While attending UCI, she worked as a paralegal for a solo practitioner, where she gained valuable insights into the legal needs of clients by working closely with individuals and organizations. Sandra also graduated from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department STARS Explorer Academy, Class 83.
