Overview

Toni Weinstein concentrates her practice on corporate and securities matters, with particular emphasis on public and private securities offerings, mergers, acquisitions, tender offers (both friendly and hostile) and corporate governance issues. In addition, Toni provides general corporate counseling to a number of companies, both public and private. She also represents issuers, borrowers and institutional lenders in financing, joint venture and restructuring transactions. Her clients operate in a wide variety of industries, including real estate development and investment, retail and healthcare. She is a member of the US Board.

Toni is a regular author and speaker on securities, M&A and other issues facing the industries in which her clients do business. She has served on the boards of directors of the Texas Ballet Theater and the Dallas Film Festival.
