Time	Topic
7:15– 7:45 a.m.	Registration and continental breakfast
7:45– 8:00 a.m.	Welcome and opening remarks	Jodi Adolf , Dentons Bruce Baty , Dentons
8:00– 9:00 a.m.	Ethics for in-house counsel All lawyers must be continuously attentive to their ethical duties, but insurers’ staff counsel must be especially so. We will explore the most common ethical issues confronting in-house counsel, policies and procedures to avoid or minimize ethical problems, and other ways staff counsel can ensure that they are in compliance with ethical requirements.	Jodi Adolf , Dentons Stephanie Pierce , Dentons
9:00– 10:00 a.m.	The Affordable Care Act and health insurance Under the current President, the insurance industry has come to expect a great deal of disruption in healthcare generally and, more specifically, with respect to the Affordable Care Act. This panel will identify and assess some of the major ACA-related legal considerations in-house counsel are grappling with, including with respect to company and product compliance, strategy, pricing and market decisions. We will discuss the law’s impact on health insurance--including short term limited duration products, and managed care--including association health plans, in the context of the current political climate.	Kara Baysinger , Dentons Governor Howard Dean , Dentons Kay Noonan , National Association of Insurance Commissioners
10:00– 10:10 a.m.	Break
