Canada

California has just passed the most stringent privacy law in the US, the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA).

Chantal Bernier, National Practice Leader for Privacy and Cybersecurity and member of Dentons Global Privacy and Security Group welcomes Todd Daubert, a partner in Dentons' Washington office, and member of Dentons' Global Privacy and Security group to share his insights on the implications of the CCPA for your business and answering any questions you may have.

This seminar will be offered in our Montréal office on Tuesday, September 24 and in our Toronto office on Wednesday, September 25. Breakfast will be provided.

Please join us for an enlightening discussion on this new development when doing business in the US.

We look forward to seeing you.

Schedule
