About Dentons Dialogue

Covering the issues, institutions and individuals shaping public policy

Launched by Dentons' Public Policy practice, Dentons Dialogue is a series of dynamic discussions, in which we examine front-burner policy issues.

Each webinar focuses on a different policy area and features key political, legal and industry leaders who dissect the cultural, political and socioeconomic drivers and practical implications of the issues at hand. The diversity of viewpoints and interplay of fact-based conversation will leave you supercharged with new ideas and insights.
