

Federal Election: What happened? What's next?

Date and time:

Start: September 23, 2021, 8:30 AM PST

End: September 23, 2021, 9:30 AM PST

Location:

Via Zoom

The Honourable James Moore, Senior Business Advisor in Dentons' Government Affairs and Public Policy group, former senior cabinet minister in the Government of Canada and sought-after government affairs analyst will be presenting on the federal election. The discussion will pinpoint what happened, where we're going, and what that means for you and your businesses. There will be an opportunity for James to address your questions following the presentation.

This session will cover:

- An in-depth analysis of federal election outcomes, and what they mean for Canadian business in the months ahead;
- The composition of leadership in parliament, and how this will affect progress around key issues;
- Review of global current affairs affecting Canadians, and what influence the current Canadian government will have in the short and long term.
