

Dentons wins National Law Firm of the Year for Hungary at annual IFLR European Awards

April 22, 2016

Budapest —Dentons' Budapest office received the 2016 IFLR National Law Firm of the Year Award at the annual IFLR European Awards, held yesterday at the Savoy Hotel in London. These prestigious awards, conferred by International Financial Law Review (IFLR), honor Europe's most innovative firms and deals.

This award recognizes Dentons' major investment into Hungary last year with the hire of 30+ lawyers from White & Case. It is also a testament to the quality of the projects that the Hungarian team has worked on over the past 12 months, in Hungary and elsewhere in the CEE/SEE region.

"Our success as 'Law Firm of the Year' demonstrates the quality of the expanded and enriched team in our Budapest office, the strength of our capabilities under the Firm's polycentric model, and our ability to work together on major cross-border transactions," said István Réczicza, Hungary Managing Partner at Dentons.

Tomasz Dąbrowski, Chief Executive Officer of Dentons Europe, added: "We are truly honored by this award which recognizes the top tier talent in our new Budapest team. Not only do they deliver top quality service to clients in Hungary, but they also contribute to our leading position in CEE, particularly for high-end M&A and Private Equity."
