

Dentons Paris hosts the World Football Forum' Director's Club Conference

July 7, 2016

Paris —On 7 July, Dentons Paris hosted the World Football Forum' Director's Club Conference organized the last day of the semi-finals of Euro 2016.

This conference brings together representatives of major football leagues, European clubs directors, delegates of football federations and prominent sport companies.

Prestigious guests are invited to discuss the 'New Geography of Football'. Football has for decades been dominated by the established heartlands of the sport in Europe and South America, but is now opening up to the rest of the world. Leading voices from this new football world offer a vision of a sport that can truly be called global.

Richard Barham, Partner in the London office, specialize in Sport Law and represented Dentons' Sport practice at the event.
