

Nine Dentons Lawyers named BTI Client Service All-Stars

February 10, 2017

Leading global law firm Dentons tied for first place among 650 law firms named as Client Service All-Stars for 2017 by BTI Consulting Group. With nine lawyers named as "All-Stars," Dentons topped the list of firms honored for their exceptional dedication to client service.

The Dentons lawyers honored by BTI in 2017 are as follows:

- Reid L. Ashinoff, Litigation and Dispute Resolution, New York
- Charles R. Bruton, IP and Technology, Washington, DC
- Gary A. Goodman, Real Estate Finance, New York

"The impressive number of Dentons lawyers so highly recognized by our clients is a testament to our firmwide focus on client service," said Global Chairman Joe Andrew.

"Having nine of our lawyers recognized by BTI illustrates that as Dentons adds capabilities, we remain dedicated to delivering high-quality service in the US and across the globe," said Global Chief Executive Officer Elliott Portnoy. "We are tremendously proud of these lawyers and congratulate them on this honor."

"These lawyers represent a broad range of practices, sectors and geographies across many of our US offices," said US CEO Mike McNamara. "This honor is particularly rewarding because it reflects the opinions of our clients and underscores the trust they place in our hands each day."

The BTI Client Service All-Stars 2017 honors lawyers who command the attention of corporate counsel at the world's leading organizations. The All-Stars is a data-driven ranking based solely on in-depth telephone interviews with more than 300 corporate counsel and leading legal decision makers at large organizations with $1 billion or more in revenue. The research is independent and unbiased—no law firm or organization other than BTI sponsors this study and no law firm or attorney influences the results, submits nominations, or provides client names to BTI. Participants are granted confidentiality at the individual and organizational level.
