

Dentons wins an impressive five awards at The Oath Middle East Legal Awards

November 29, 2017

Dubai —Dentons is honoured to have won five awards at The Oath Middle East Legal Awards 2017, including the top award of the evening for International Law Firm of the Year. The ceremony took place in Dubai yesterday evening where the Firm also collected awards for Law Firm of the Year – UAE, Real Estate & Construction Team of the Year, Banking & Finance Team of the Year and Corporate Team of the Year.

The Firm additionally received two honourable mentions in the Law Firm of the Year – Oman and Litigation and Dispute Resolution Team of the Year categories, having originally been shortlisted for an outstanding ten awards at the event.

Paul Jarvis, Dentons' Managing Partner for the Middle East, said, "I congratulate our Middle East team on this exceptional achievement across a broad selection of categories. It's an honour to be recognised by peers and industry leaders for our outstanding work across the region as we continue to position ourselves as a leading global law firm."

Established in 2015, The Oath Awards recognise law firms, general counsel and in-house teams who are 'a cut above the rest' and are revolutionising the region with their outstanding contributions. The evening was hosted by Niche Publishers at the iconic Jumeirah Beach Hotel with over 300 legal professionals in attendance.
