

Dentons again named Alternative Dispute Resolution Team of the Year in Qatar

November 26, 2018

Doha —Dentons' Middle East Construction and Dispute Resolution team has been awarded Alternative Dispute Resolution Team of the Year at the LexisNexis Qatar Business Law Forum & Awards for the second year running.

Now in its third year, the event celebrates the exceptional achievements of Qatar's legal community over the last 12 months with a judging panel composed of industry leaders, academic practitioners and government officials. It is organised in partnership with the Ministry of Economy and Commerce (Department of Legal Affairs), Qatar University (College of Law), and the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) Middle East.

Having had a presence in Qatar for over 11 years, Dentons continues to maintain its premier reputation as one of the largest and longest established international law firms in the market. The Doha-based team have worked on or been involved in almost every major project in the country in the past decade, from retail and residential complexes to hotel and leisure developments and large energy projects.

Earlier this year Dentons earned the Construction Team of the Year at Legal Week's Middle East Legal Awards 2018, also for the second year running.

Commenting on the team's continued success, Dentons' Dubai managing partner and Head of Construction and Dispute Resolution in the Middle East, Alastair Young, said, "These awards are acknowledgement of our legal excellence on significant projects for both clients and our local communities."
