

Dentons continues as a market leader in Central Asia in Chambers Asia-Pacific 2019

December 12, 2018

In the 2019 edition of Chambers Asia-Pacific, Dentons has been highly ranked in every practice and sector area researched in Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan. The Firm has received five practice rankings, four of which were Band 1. Moreover, eight Dentons lawyers have been recognized in the guide as leaders in their field.

Dentons' practice and lawyer rankings for 2019 include:

Azerbaijan

- General Business Law – Band 1
 - Kamal Mammadzada – Band 1
 - James Hogan – Band 2
 - Ulvia Zeynalova-Bockin – Recognized Practitioner

Kazakhstan

- Corporate & Finance – Band 1
 - Abai Shaikenov – Band 1
- Dispute Resolution – Band 1
 - Aigoul Kenjebayeva – Eminent Practitioner
 - Kanat Skakov – Band 2
- Energy & Natural Resources – Band 1
 - Aigoul Kenjebayeva – Band 1

Uzbekistan

- General Business Law – Band 2
 - Eldor Mannopov – Band 2
 - Shukhrat Yunusov – Band 3

Chambers Asia-Pacific covers 41 jurisdictions, from the Central Asian region to Japan, from Mongolia to the South Pacific. The guide covers the most internationally important areas of law, such as Arbitration, Capital Markets, and Corporate/M&A.

Dentons' full practice and lawyer rankings in the Chambers Asia-Pacific 2019 guide are available here.

About Dentons

Dentons is the world's largest law firm, connecting top-tier talent to the world's challenges and opportunities with 20,000 professionals including 12,000 lawyers, in more than 200 locations, in more than 80 countries. Dentons' polycentric and purpose-driven approach, commitment to inclusion and diversity, and award-winning client service challenge the status quo to advance client interests. www.dentons.com

Media contact

Amanda Lowe

PR and Communications

Director, Europe

M +420 727 811 699

amanda.lowe@dentons.com