

Dentons recognized as one of Canada's Greenest Employers for the third consecutive year

April 15, 2019

For the third consecutive year, Dentons is honoured to be named one of Canada's Greenest Employers, reinforcing our commitment to the environment and sustainability.

"We all have a role to play in shaping the future health of our planet," said Beth Wilson, Dentons Canada Chief Executive Officer. "At Dentons, fostering sustainable solutions to enhance the way we work helps to minimize our carbon footprint, and we're really pleased to have been recognized for our commitment to sustainability again this year."

"Our grassroots green initiatives play an important role in defining the wellbeing of our Firm" said Jillian Frank, Partner and Chief Talent Officer. "Creating an eco-conscious culture by adopting environmentally sustainable practices enables our people to seek innovative opportunities that improve our environmental impact across our office and within our communities."

The editors of Canada's Top 100 Employers recognize organizations who create a culture of environmental awareness in terms of: unique environmental initiatives; the extent to which organizations have been successful in reducing their own environmental footprint; the degree to which employees are involved in green programs; and the extent to which green initiatives have become linked to the employer's public identity, attracting new talent and clients to the organization.
