

Dentons promotes 15 new partners in Canada

February 4, 2019

Toronto —Dentons is proud to introduce our 15 Canada Region lawyers who are joining the Firm's partnership. With representation in five offices across the country, this diverse class of new partners will add significant bench strength in a variety of sector groups and practices.

"My sincere congratulations to these accomplished professionals on reaching this well-earned milestone in their careers," said Beth Wilson, Dentons' Canada Chief Executive Officer. "We are passionate about creating a culture and platform to attract and retain exceptional talent. These new partners consistently demonstrate client service excellence, integrity and innovation. They exemplify not only the highest standards of the profession, but also the Firm's values and strategic priorities, positioning each of them as valuable business advisors to their clients."

Meet the 15 new Dentons Canada partners:
