

Dentons welcomes back Karen Tuschak as Director of Law Clerks and Paralegals

February 5, 2019

Dentons is pleased to announce that Karen Tuschak has joined the Firm as Canada Director of Law Clerks and Paralegals.

Based in Toronto, Karen will lead and manage the Canada Region's team of law clerks and paralegals across the Firm's six offices and 10 practice groups.

"We are delighted to welcome Karen back to the Firm," said Charles Spector, Partner, National Practice Group Leader for Corporate Law. "She is a leader, a mentor, and will be a great resource for our law clerks and paralegals. With her proven track record, she will help the Firm further enhance collaboration and innovation in the paraprofessional group and across all of our practices."

"Karen brings extensive experience in legal administration, and we're incredibly excited to bring her back to Dentons," said John Esvelt, Chief Practice Officer and Canada Chief Legal Officer at Dentons. "Karen will be working closely with our Practice Support & Optimization team as we continue to build our reputation of excellent client service."

From 2007 to 2014, Karen served in various roles at Dentons, most recently as Director of Professional Development and Practice Resources. Karen has a Bachelor of Arts from York University and a Legal Administration diploma from Seneca College in Toronto. She holds a Human Resource Management Certificate and regularly speaks at legal administration conferences around North America.
