

Dentons advises Ryanair on low cost unsecured €750 million syndicated facility

June 18, 2019

London —Dentons has advised Ryanair on a low cost unsecured €750 million syndicated facility. The transaction closed on 13 May 2019.

Founded in 1984, Ryanair is the leading low cost airline headquartered in Dublin, Ireland. With 130 million annual customers, Ryanair operates over 2,000 flights per day with over 1,800 different routes.

A number of leading banks were mandated lead arrangers and BNP Paribas acted as the documentation agent.

Catherine Astruc, UK Banking and Finance partner at Dentons who led on the deal, said, "We are delighted to have helped Ryanair secure this credit facility."

Alongside Catherine Astruc, the Dentons team included relationship partner Nick Hayday and Banking and Finance associate Joe Byron Evans.
