

Who's Who Legal Arbitration 2021 recognizes 14 Dentons lawyers among the world's leading arbitration practitioners

December 10, 2020

We are pleased to announce that Who's Who Legal Arbitration 2021 has ranked 14 lawyers from Dentons' International Arbitration group among the world's leading arbitration practitioners.

Of those, partners Jean-Christophe Honlet and Bart Legum were listed as "Thought Leaders", which is a category reserved for those practitioners who received the highest number of nominations from peers, corporate counsel and other market sources. Six of Dentons' lawyers were also recognized as "Future Leaders", the next generation arbitration leaders under the age of 45.

"We are grateful for the continuously positive feedback of our clients and peers, resulting in a growing number of our lawyers ranked by Who's Who Legal Arbitration. These rankings are a testament to the quality of the arbitration advice that we aspire to and deliver to Dentons' clients around the world. We are also proud that several of our rising stars have been recognized as leaders of the future, which attests to the Firm's efforts to grow our capabilities and develop talent." commented Jean-Christophe Honlet, Global Head of International Arbitration and Bart Legum, Global Head of Investment Treaty Arbitration.

Dentons' ranked lawyers are:
