

Dentons Africa region recognized by Chambers Global Guide 2020

February 27, 2020

Dentons Africa Region has received 30 top rankings in the 2020 Chambers Global Guide, one of the legal industry's most prestigious rankings which relies heavily on client feedback. Dentons launched in Morocco and Uganda in 2019, adding to its African presence in Egypt, Kenya, Mauritius and South Africa.

The Firm has ranked in 12 practice areas, including Banking and Finance, Corporate Commercial, Projects & Energy and Intellectual Property, in various jurisdictions across Africa.

Dentons combination firms in Angola, Mozambique, Zambia and Zimbabwe have also achieved Chambers rankings.

"These rankings represent an external recognition of our dedication and ability to meet client demands across Africa and our global platform. It is testament to our commitment to deliver high-quality legal counsel and business solutions that are informed by an in-depth understanding of the various cultures in which our clients operate", said Noor Kapdi, Dentons Africa Chief Executive Officer. "We are proud and grateful to the clients who continue to place their trust in us."

Chambers and Partners is the largest independent legal data and analytics firm in the world. With over 200 dedicated research analysts speaking 23 languages across 200 jurisdictions, the firm produces in-depth analysis and client insights for all areas of the global legal profession.

Feedback on Dentons provided by clients and Chambers and Partners include-
